DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY*Fiscal Service*31 CFR Part 380*RIN 1535—AA00*Collateral Acceptability and Valuation*AGENCY: Bureau of the Public Debt, Fiscal Service, Department of the Treasury.ACTION: Final Rule.

SUMMARY: The Department of the Treasury ("Treasury," "We," or "Us") is issuing a rule in final form that governs the acceptability and valuation of all collateral pledged to secure deposits of public monies and other financial interests of the Federal Government under Treasury's three Fiscal Service collateral programs. These programs are titled and described in existing parts of the Code of Federal Regulations ("CFR") as: Depositories and Financial Agents of the Government (31 CFR part 202); Payment of Federal Taxes and the Treasury Tax and Loan Program (31 CFR part 203); and Acceptance of Bonds Secured by Government Obligations in Lieu of Bonds with Sureties (31 CFR part 225). We are establishing a new part in the CFR for this purpose. This final rule provides a central location for the acceptability and valuation provisions for Treasury's collateral programs without substantive changes.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 13, 2000.

ADDRESSES: You may download this final rule from Treasury's Bureau of the Public Debt website at www.publicdebt.treas.gov. It is also available for public inspection and copying at the Treasury Department Library, Room 1428, Main Treasury Building, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20220. To visit the library, call (202) 622-0990 for an appointment.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:*I. Background

We are publishing this final rule governing the determination of the acceptable types of collateral and their assigned values when pledged to secure deposits of public monies and other financial interests of the Federal Government under Treasury's three Fiscal Service collateral programs. We are centralizing these collateral provisions and establishing a new part 380 of Title 31 of the CFR for this purpose.

Treasury's Fiscal Service administers three financial programs that involve the pledging of specific collateral. These programs are governed by 31 CFR part 202 (Depositories and Financial Agents of the Government), 31 CFR part 203 (Payment of Federal Taxes and the Treasury Tax and Loan Program), and 31 CFR part 225 (Acceptance of Bonds Secured by Government Obligations in Lieu of Bonds with Sureties). The Financial Management Service ("FMS"), a bureau within Treasury's Fiscal Service, administers these programs, which are handled operationally by the Federal Reserve System, acting as the fiscal agent for Treasury. FMS will continue to be responsible for administering and amending the regulations for these programs and providing operational oversight. The Bureau of the Public Debt ("Public Debt"), another bureau within Treasury's Fiscal Service, will administer 31 CFR part 380, pertaining to the acceptability and valuation of the collateral in these programs and will provide guidance accordingly.

On October 29, 1999, we published a proposed rule for public comment that laid out our intent to centralize the acceptability and valuation standards for collateral pledged to Treasury's three Fiscal Service financial programs.<sup>1</sup> The closing date for comments was November 29, 1999. We have decided to adopt the approach essentially as proposed.

II. Comments Received in Response to Proposed Rule

In response to the proposed rule, we received one comment letter and the commenter was supportive of the proposal.<sup>2</sup> The commenter recommended that fixed income securities be included in parts 202 and 225. The commenter also suggested that valuation for all pledged collateral be based on the class of acceptable securities using a market valuation methodology.

Certain fixed income securities are currently acceptable collateral for pledging in these programs. Obligations of the U.S. government, government-sponsored corporations, and those issued by certain international development banks, such as the Inter-American Development Bank or the World Bank, are acceptable for part 202. Acceptable collateral for Part 225 is statutorily limited to public debt obligations of the United States and those obligations "whose principal and interest is unconditionally guaranteed by the Government."<sup>3</sup> Such obligations, including U.S. Treasury notes, bonds, and selected U.S. government agency issues, are commonly called fixed income securities. Also, we currently apply a market valuation methodology for collateral pledged under part 203 and continue to work at extending this methodology to the other two programs.

III. Changes from the Proposed Rule

We have decided to adopt this rule to establish a different regulatory structure to centralize the acceptability and valuation standards for Treasury's three financial programs that require the pledging of collateral. The final rule adopts the proposed rule without significant changes. The only change that has been made is to reference current Treasury guidance rather than set out the acceptable classes of collateral and respective valuations in the regulation, as we had considered in the preamble to the proposed rule.<sup>4</sup> Eliminating specific mention of the acceptable classes and respective valuations in the final rule allows us the flexibility to maintain guidance that can be readily updated for the benefit of participants in the programs. Sections 380.2, 380.3, and 380.4 of this rule provide that we will list the types and valuation of acceptable collateral in Treasury procedural instructions. The term "procedural instructions," for instance, is described in 31 CFR 203.2 as "the Treasury Financial Manual, Volume IV (TFM IV), other Treasury instructions issued through the TFAs, and FRB operating circulars issued consistent with this part."<sup>5</sup> We will also provide guidance and information about collateral acceptability and valuation issues on Treasury's Bureau of the

<sup>5</sup> For example §§ 203.1 and 203.2 of Title 31 of the CFR reference several terms that are applied to part 203 and that will also be applied by reference to part 380, as applied to part 203. Included in these references and definitions is the term "TFA" meaning "Treasury Financial Agent." Also, Treasury procedural instructions consistent with 31 CFR part 203 include periodic releases distributed by Treasury to supplement and update the Treasury Financial Manual. These are often referred to as Treasury Tax and Loan (TT&L) Releases. FRB refers to Federal Reserve Banks.

<sup>2</sup> See Bank of America Corporation letter dated November 29, 1999, from Patrick M. Frawley, Director, Regulatory Relations, to Van Zeck, Commissioner, Bureau of the Public Debt. The comment letter is available for downloading on the Internet and for inspection and copying at the Treasury Department Library at the addresses provided earlier in this rule.

Public Debt website at:
www.publicdebt.treas.gov.

The office responsible for implementation of part 380, including interpretations, is the Office of the Commissioner, Bureau of the Public Debt. FMS and Public Debt are coordinating on the issuance of their respective rules. FMS is simultaneously publishing its corresponding regulatory amendments to parts 202, 203, and 225 of Title 31 of the CFR, removing current references to collateral acceptability and valuation and replacing them with references to 31 CFR part 380.

IV. Procedural Requirements

This final rule is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866. We certify that this regulation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This regulation provides a central location, without substantive change, for regulatory provisions that currently appear in three separate sets of regulations for Treasury's collateral programs. Accordingly, we are not required to perform a regulatory flexibility analysis. Finally, this final rule contains no new collection of information. Therefore, the Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply.

31 CFR Part 202

RIN–1510–AA75

Depositaries and Financial Agents of the Government

AGENCY: Financial Management Service, Fiscal Service, Treasury.

ACTION: Final Rule.

SUMMARY: The Financial Management Service (FMS) is issuing this final rule which governs the designation of Depositaries and Financial Agents of the Federal Government; their authorization to accept deposits of public money and to perform other specific services; and the securing of public money. This revision removes current references to collateral acceptability and valuation and replaces them with references to the new rule of the Bureau of the Public Debt (BPD), codified at 31 CFR part 380, governing collateral acceptability and valuation. The revision is necessary because the responsibility for determining the acceptability and valuation of collateral under 31 CFR part 202 was recently transferred from FMS to BPD.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 13, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mary Bailey, Financial Program Specialist, at (202) 874–6749; Walt Henderson, Senior Financial Program

Specialist, at (202) 874-6705; Cynthia L. Johnson, Director, Cash Management Policy and Planning Division, at (202) 874-6590; or Marc Seldin, Senior Attorney, at (202) 874-6680. A copy of this final rule is available on FMS' web site at the following address: www.fms.treas.gov/regs.html.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Depositories accepting deposits of public money and providing other financial agency services to the United States (depositories) are required to pledge adequate acceptable securities as collateral, as directed by the Secretary of the Treasury (Secretary). The Secretary previously promulgated regulations, codified at 31 CFR part 202, setting forth general requirements for designating depositories and the pledging of collateral.

While FMS continues to be responsible for all other operational and regulatory oversight of programs under 31 CFR part 202, responsibility for determining the acceptability and valuation of collateral pledged for programs under this regulation was recently transferred from FMS to BPD, another bureau within the Fiscal Service of the Department of the Treasury (Treasury). BPD has promulgated a regulation, codified at 31 CFR part 380 and published elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register, governing such collateral acceptability and valuation. The current rule provides that types and valuation of acceptable collateral securities will be specified in Treasury procedural instructions. The revised rule results in no effective change. Current references to collateral acceptability and valuation are removed and replaced with references to BPD's collateral acceptability and valuation rule, which similarly provides that types and valuations of acceptable collateral securities will be specified in Treasury procedural instructions. Treasury procedural instructions issued under the current rule and the revised rule are presently identical. This rule also revises the heading of this part for clarity and the format of the authority citation for this part for consistency.

Regulatory Analyses

It has been determined that this regulation is not a significant regulatory action as defined in Executive Order 12866. Therefore, a Regulatory Assessment is not required.

Executive Order 12866 and the President's memorandum of June 1, 1998 require each agency to write all rules in plain language.

We invite your comments on the clarity of this rule. Please send any comments to the Department of the Treasury, Financial Management Service, Cash Management Policy and Planning Division, 401 14th Street, SW, Washington, DC 20227.

Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required, the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act do not apply.

Because this regulation merely affects internal agency organization and does not substantively change the current rule, no notice of proposed rulemaking is required by 5 U.S.C. 553.

List of Subjects in 31 CFR Part 202

For the reasons set out in the preamble, 31 CFR part 202 is amended as follows:

2. Revise the authority citation for part 202 to read as follows:

Authority: 12 U.S.C. 90, 265-266, 391, 1452(d), 1464(k), 1789a, 2013, 2122 and 3101-3102; 31 U.S.C. 3303 and 3336.

3. Amend § 202.6 to revise paragraph (b) to read as follows:

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Financial Management Service (FMS) is issuing this final rule which governs the processing of Federal tax payments by financial institutions and the Federal Reserve Banks using electronic payment or paper methods; the designation of Treasury Tax and Loan (TT&L) depositories; and the operation of the investment program of the Department of the Treasury (Treasury). This revision removes current references to the acceptability and valuation of collateral pledged to secure deposits of tax payments through the Treasury Investment Program, and replaces them with references to the new rule published by Treasury's Bureau of the Public Debt (BPD), codified at 31 CFR part 380, governing collateral acceptability and valuation. The revision is necessary because the responsibility for determining the acceptability and valuation of collateral was recently transferred from FMS to BPD.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The TT&L program encompasses two separate components—a depository component through which the Treasury collects Federal tax deposits and payments from business taxpayers for employee withholding and other types of taxes, and an investment component through which the Treasury invests short-term operating balances not needed for immediate cash outlays. More than 1,500 of the TT&L depositories borrow excess short-term Treasury operating funds by participating in the investment component of the TT&L program. Through agreements, participating depositories borrow Treasury funds in the form of a note secured with collateral pledged to the Treasury and pay interest to the Treasury on these balances. The Secretary of the Treasury (Secretary) previously promulgated regulations, codified at 31 CFR part 203, governing the TT&L program and the pledging of such collateral.

While FMS continues to be responsible for any other operational and regulatory oversight of programs under 31 CFR part 203, responsibility for determining the acceptability and valuation of collateral pledged for programs under this regulation was recently transferred from FMS to BPD, another bureau within the Fiscal Service of the Department of the Treasury (Treasury). BPD has promulgated a regulation, codified at 31 CFR part 380 and published elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register, governing such collateral acceptability and valuation. The current rule provides that (1) unless otherwise specified by the Secretary, collateral security pledged under § 203.24 may be transferable securities, owned by the depository free and clear of all liens, charges, or claims, of any of the classes listed in procedural instructions; and (2) collateral valuations will be assigned by the Federal Reserve Bank of the District. The revised rule results in no substantive change. The revised rule states that acceptable types and valuations of collateral are addressed in 31 CFR part 380. Pursuant to § 380.3, BPD has specified that the above provisions of the current rule continue.

Banks, Banking.

For the reasons set out in the preamble, 31 CFR part 203 is amended as follows:

PART 203—PAYMENT OF FEDERAL TAXES AND THE TREASURY TAX AND LOAN PROGRAM

1. The authority citation for part 203 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 12 U.S.C. 90, 265–266, 332, 391, 1452(d), 1464(k), 1767, 1789a, 2013, 2122 and 3102; 26 U.S.C. 6302; 31 U.S.C. 321, 323 and 3301–3304

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Financial Management Service (FMS) is issuing this final rule which governs the acceptance of bonds secured by Government obligations in lieu of bonds with sureties. This revision adds references to the new rule of the Bureau of the Public Debt (BPD), codified at 31 CFR part 380, governing collateral acceptability and valuation. #### SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Persons required by Federal law to give an agency a surety bond instead may provide a bond secured by Government obligations. To assist agencies in reviewing and accepting such bonds, the Secretary of the Treasury promulgated regulations codified at 31 CFR part 225, which set forth requirements applicable to bonds secured by Government obligations in lieu of bonds with sureties. While the FMS continues to be responsible for all other operational and regulatory oversight of programs under 31 CFR part 225, responsibility for determining the acceptability and valuation of collateral pledged under this regulation was recently transferred from FMS to BPD, another bureau within the Fiscal Service of the Department of the Treasury (Treasury). BPD has promulgated a regulation, codified at 31 CFR part 380 and published elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register, governing such collateral acceptability and valuation. The current rule reserves paragraph (e) within section 225.3. The revised rule inserts in this section appropriate references to the new BPD regulation. The revised rule results in no substantive change. Acceptable types of collateral security and their valuation under this revision are the same as exist currently. This rule also revises, for purposes of consistency, the format of the authority citation for this part.
